[A reprint of the first volume has already been called for.]

The following headings to the Nine Books, into which this Work is divided, will give some idea of its scope, and of the German thoroughness with which the Author has treated his subject:—History of the English Drama—The Life and Times of Shakspeare—Shakspeare's Dramatic style in relation to that of his Contemporaries—Shakspeare's Tragedies—Shakspeare's Comedies—Shakspeare's Historical Dramas—The Plays ascribed to Shakspeare, the genuineness of which is doubtful—History of Shakspeare's Plays in England—in Germany.

The Editor's aim in this Edition has been to effect a correct reproduction of the "Reliques" as put forth during Percy's life. For this purpose, the four Earliest Editions have been carefully collated with the folio MS. The Glossary has been considerably enlarged, and an Index has also been added. A few Explanatory Foot-Notes, the fruit of late research, increase the already copious stock; but the paternity of all such is distinctly noted.

This Volume is the most complete Work on Epigrams yet issued. It contains upwards of 1,500 specimens, selected from about 400 authors of all nations, beginning with Archilochus (B.C. 650) and ending with our present Laureate. Slight Biographical Notices are attached to each Author, and Explanations, Notes, Comparisons, and Anecdotes are given wherever the Epigrams are made more interesting by such means.

[A reprint of this work has already been called for.]

A HISTORY of the INTELLECTUAL DEVELOPMENT of EUROPE By JOHN WILLIAM DRAPER, M.D., LL.D. A New and Cheaper Edition, Revised throughout by the Author. 2 vols. post 8vo, 10s.

Social advancement is as completely under the control of natural law as is bodily growth. The life of an individual is a miniature of the life of a nation. To demonstrate and illustrate these two propositions is the special object of this work.

[A reprint of these volumes has already been called for.]

POMPEII: its Buildings and Antiquities.

An Account of the City, with full Description of the Remains and Recent Excavations, and also an Itinerary for Visitors. By T. H. DYER, LL.D. With nearly 300 Wood Engravings, a large Map, and a Plan of the Forum. Fourth and Cheaper Edition. Post 8vo, 7s. 6d.

This Edition (the Fourth) has been carefully revised, and has been enlarged by adding descriptions of the more important discoveries made up to the year 1874. The Plan has also been altered in accordance with the recent discoveries, and three fresh Engravings inserted.

HISTORY of the ARTICLES of RELIGION, to which is added a Series of Documents from A.D. 1536 to A.D. 1615, together with Illustrations from Contemporary Sources. By the late C. HARDWICK. Thoroughly Revised, with the addition of an Appendix. Third and Cheaper Edition. Post 8vo, 5s. [Now ready.]

This Edition has been thoroughly revised by the Rev. Francis Procter, M.A., Author of "History of the Book of Common Prayer," and has been enlarged by the addition of an Appendix containing a reprint of the MS. of the Forty-five Articles of 1553, which is preserved among the State Papers.

INTRODUCTION to the OLD TESTAMENT.

By FRIEDRICH BLEEK. Edited by JOHANN BLEEK and ADOLF KAMPHAUSEN. Translated from the Second Edition of the German, by G. H. VESABLES, under the supervision of the Rev. F. VESABLES, Residentiary Canon of Lincoln. Second Edition, with Corrections. 2 vols. post 8vo, 10s.

"Bleek's" Introduction, which is here for the first time presented in an English dress, has been long and favourably known to Biblical students as perhaps the most complete and trustworthy of the works which, under the same title, and professing the same objects, have appeared with such rapidity in Germany during the last quarter of a century.—From the Preface to the First Edition.

The THEATRE of the GREEKS: a Treatise on the History and Exhibition of the Greek Drama. With a Supplementary Treatise on the Language, Metres, and Prosody of the Greek Dramatists, and numerous Illustrations from the best Ancient Authorities. By JOHN WILLIAM DONALDSON, D.D. Eighth Edition. Post 8vo, 6s.

The present Edition is a reprint of the seventh (the last edited by Dr. Donaldson), with a few slight modifications and omissions which were found necessary in order to make the book of the requisite size.

CARY'S DANTE: The Vision of Hell, Purgatory, and Paradise, of Dante Alighieri. Translated by the Rev. H. F. CARY, M.A. With a Portrait and Life of Dante, Chronological View of his Age, Additional Notes, and an Index of Proper Names. Post 8vo, 3s. 6d.

This Edition, and the deny 8vo one with double columns, price 2s. 6d. cloth, 1s. 6d. sewed, are the only editions containing the last corrections of the Author, with numerous additional Notes.

The BETROTHED: being a Translation of "I Promessi Sposi." By ALESSANDRO MANZONI. With numerous Illustrations. Post 8vo, 1 vol. 732 pages, 5s.

This is the only complete English translation of the work. It forms the First Volume of a New Library, entitled "THE NOVELIST'S LIBRARY." The two following novels have already been added, and others are in preparation.

The HISTORY of the ADVENTURES of JOSEPH ANDREWS, and his FRIEND, Mr. ABRAHAM ADAMS. By HENRY FIELDING. With Thomas Roscoe's Biography, a Portrait of Fielding, and George Cruikshank's Illustrations. Post 8vo, 3s. 6d. [Immediately.]

This reprint of Fielding's first novel is a reproduction of the fifth edition, the last published in the author's lifetime. Mr. Roscoe's Memoir has been revised for this edition, and it is hoped, improved by the omission of some irrelevant matter, and by the insertion, in notes, of sundry details which have hitherto been overlooked.

The HISTORY of TOM JONES, a FOUNDLING. By HENRY FIELDING. Roscoe's Edition. With George Cruikshank's Illustrations. 2 vols. post 8vo, 7s.

EPICTETUS. Translated, with Introduction and Notes, by GEORGE LONG. [Shortly.]

The subjects to which the additions and corrections in the new Part First more particularly belong are "Definition of certain characteristics pertaining to dynamical equilibrium force," and "Correlations of force, velocity, and radial distance in planetary orbits."

(The new Part First will be ready in about ten days, after which those who have Copies of the previous issue will oblige by exchanging them at their earliest convenience for the corrected and amplified Edition.)

This day is published,

TALES and TRADITIONS of the ESKIMO.

With a Sketch of their Habits, Religion, Language, and other Peculiarities. By DR. HENRY RINK, Director of the Royal Greenland Board of Trade, and formerly Inspector of South Greenland. Translated from the Danish by the Author. Edited by DR. ROBERT BROWN, F.L.S., F.R.G.S. With numerous Illustrations, drawn and engraved by Eskimo. Crown 8vo, 10s. 6d.

"So far as real knowledge of the Eskimo is concerned, all that has been written of their habits, manners, and customs before Dr. Rink took the subject in hand is little better than so much waste paper. Here was a very interesting race waiting to be understood, and biding its time. Dr. Rink has been the first to do them that good office, and, like the Greek philosopher of old, he appears on the scene of this inquiry, compared with all before him, as a sober man amongst drunkards. Though his book is nominally a collection of popular tales, it contains in reality much more. In an elaborate introduction he treats in order of the means of subsistence of the Eskimo, of their language, social order and laws; of their religion, origin and history, and of the influence which contact with the Europeans has exerted on the race. . . . As for the 'Tales' themselves, they will hold their own for genuineness and truth with those of any race. Lessons of justice and truth are always inculcated, and often in a terrible way."
